Allowable Subject Matter

1. Applicant's amendments to the claims are deemed to overcome the outstanding office action.
2. Claims 2-9 are allowable.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The prior art does not teach or suggest a key switch diaphragm comprising:

- Claim 4: at least one raised portion being raised toward the reference surface; when an external force acting toward the reference surface is applied to the second leaf spring, at least the raised portion comes into contact with the reference surface;

- Claim 5: a third leaf spring formed on the second leaf spring raised in a direction away from the reference surface, when an external force acting toward the reference surface is applied to the third leaf spring, an edge of at least the third leaf spring comes into contact with the reference surface;

- Claim 6: an opening formed in the second leaf spring, when an external force acting toward the reference surface is applied to the second leaf spring, an edge of at least the opening comes into contact with the reference surface;

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
